OUIDA'S NEW NOVEL.

3 vols. crown 8vo, at every Library.

A R I A D N Ê.

BY OUIDA.

"Ouida's new story, 'Ariadne,' is not only a great romance, but a great and consummate work of art, remarkable beyond anything which she has yet given us for the combination of simplicity, passion, severity, and beauty. The work stands on an altogether loftier level than anything previously attempted by its author. It is as complete and crowning a triumph of the skill of the writer that, out of materials so simple, with no accessories in the way of plot, and only four principal dramatis personae, she should have wrought a result so rich in colour, so beautiful in proportions, as it is of the sculptor's skill that he should be able to transform the solid and shapeless marble into the counterfeited presentment of life. The pages are studded with epigrams and short and felicitous sayings, wherein much wisdom and knowledge of human nature are enshrined. It is as a work of art that 'Ariadne' must be judged; and as such we may almost venture to pronounce it without fault or flaw in its beauty."—The World.

A PEEP BEHIND the SCENES at ROME.

By T. ADOLPHUS TROLLOPE.

MR. JAMES PAYN'S NEW NOVEL.

3 vols. crown 8vo, at every Library.

WHAT HE COST HER.

By JAMES PAYN.

"Mr. Pavn's work is always intelligent and original, and certainly this last novel may claim particular praise in the last-named quality."—Vanity Fair.

"Characteristic humour, ingenuity, dash, and descriptive powers . . . will carry the reader pleasantly and easily through the pages of 'What He Cost Her.' . . . The marvel is that under the circumstances he should invariably exhibit so much of spirit, vigour, freshness, inventiveness."—Illustrated London News.

"Ella Juxon is never rapid or insipid; her warlike uncle and his friend the commissary are sketches very lifelike of a pipelay type of veteran that is passing away. . . . There is plenty of vivacity in the narrative throughout."—Athenæum.

3 vols. crown 8vo, at every Library.

DICK TEMPLE.

By JAMES GREENWOOD.

"Resembles in construction, though not otherwise, the immortal adventures of the Pickwick Club, and has no more plot than that famous work. . . . The various scenes are told with much spirit."—Athenæum.

"Shows that the author's versatile and graphic power has in no way been enfeebled. . . . We have not read a fresher novel this season, and it is the exception to find one in which there is so much masculine energy."—Liverpool Albion.

3 vols. crown 8vo, at every Library.

JULIET'S GUARDIAN. By Mrs. H. LOVETT CAMERON.

"A really good novel. Mrs. Cameron is far too good an artist to rest content with anything but the very best work. . . . One of the purest, brightest, briskest, cleverest, and most original stories that we have come across for many a long day."—Whitehall Review.

"The reading public may be warmly congratulated upon the advent above the literary horizon of a new and exceptionally brilliant planet. . . . Charming fresh. . . . We advise everyone to read and judge for themselves."—Morning Post.

3 vols. crown 8vo, at every Library.

JOHN LEXLEY'S TROUBLES. By C. W. BARDSEY, M.A.

"In respect of a certain thoughtfulness of tone and grace of style, which are evidently the expression of true culture, it belongs emphatically to what may be termed, in contradistinction to novels of incident, the philosophic school of fiction. . . . On the whole, a thoroughly well-written novel, and full of promise of still better work in the future."—Scotsman.

"There is a great deal of power in Mr. Bardsey's relation of poor John Lexley's troubles. . . . The key-note of the story is the harmonizing of two contrasted natures, which, differing utterly in kind, resemble each other in the sweetness and purity of generous and untainted youth. . . . The book is suggestive; in parts it is also humorous."—Athenæum.

THE NEW REPUBLIC;

OR,

CULTURE, FAITH, AND PHILOSOPHY IN AN ENGLISH COUNTRY HOUSE.

EXTRACTS FROM OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The great charm of the book lies in the clever and artistic way the dialogue is managed, and the diverse and various expedients by which, whilst the love of thought on every page is kept at a high pitch, it never loses its realistic aspect. . . . It is giving high praise to a work of this sort to say that it absolutely needs to be taken as a whole, and that disjointed extracts here and there would entirely fail to convey any idea of the artistic unity, the careful and conscientious sequence of what is evidently the brilliant outcome of much patient thought and study. . . . Enough has now been said to recommend these volumes to any reader who desires something above the usual novel, something which will open up lanes of thought in his own mind, and insensibly introduce a higher standard into his daily life. . . . Here is novelty indeed, as well as originality, and to anyone who can appreciate or understand 'The New Republic' it cannot fail to be a rare treat."—Observer.

"A book to read, to rejoice in, and to remember. . . . It is only very dull or very bigoted persons who will misunderstand its meaning, or who will fail to see that, if it furnishes few weapons to the faithful, it blunts and breaks a goodly array of the swords and spears of the unbelievers."—Standard.

"This is a very ambitious book. It is a bold thing for a young man to challenge comparison with Plato. . . . The book will be read, we should think, with great zest at the Universities, where alone, perhaps, some of the more secret touches of its satire will be fully appreciated. . . . The interlocutors in the book not only talk, but are admirably adapted to be the cause of talk in others."—Examiner.

"A very original and suggestive work. If we could imagine Mr. Anthony Trollope and Sir Arthur Helps combined, with a slight suspicion of Mr. Matthew Arnold, we might get pretty near to the leading characteristics of the book. It is clearly written by a man who knows society and can discriminate and deal readily with its typical personages, and who has the unique faculty of presenting actual living men under thin disguises, with the slightest touch of satire extravagance, which does not in the least detract from the general truth of the picture, and yet carries with it almost the interest of fiction. . . . It is from first to last ingenious, humorous, and suggestive."—Nonconformist.

"'The New Republic' is a book that is certain to be widely read, but it is not too much to say that it should never have been written, or, at all events, never have been published."—Academy.

"Sharp and keen in its abundant sarcasm, and fresh and striking in the mode in which things of common interest are presented. . . . It is a book to stimulate thought."—Liverpool Weekly Albion.

"With all its faults, readable and entertaining, and what is after all of most value, full of suggestion."—Sunday Times.

"So clever a book, despite its faults, that it deserves criticism of the adulatory rather than the obnoxious kind. . . . Here is a man who can write epigrams, and we hope that he will write more."—Athenæum.

"A decidedly clever book. There is plenty of epigram in its literary style. . . . There is a very clever imitation of Mr. Matthew Arnold's (Mr. Jowett) poetry; but the best parody in the book is that of a sermon of Mr. Jowett, and this is really so good that it might well be a reminiscence of a discourse actually delivered in Balliol Chapel."—The World.

"The introduction of living personages under transparent disguises to point the moral and adorn the tale of 'The New Republic' cannot be justified, and should not be encouraged. This is, nevertheless, a naughty world, and it is more than probable that the obnoxious story will be the first item to which readers in general will refer. The parodies of some of our most conspicuous theological, scientific, and philosophical guides are unquestionably happy."—Illustrated London News.

"The aim of the book, and the general vigour of execution, render the two volumes thoroughly acceptable. . . . 'The New Republic' will attract attention both by its forcible delineation of character and the earnestness of the author's thought."—Scotsman.

The next ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the Association will be held at PLYMOUTH, commencing on WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 15.

PRESIDENT-ELECT.

Professor ALLEN THOMSON, M.D., LL.D., F.R.S., F.R.S.E.
 NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS OF MEMOIRS.—Authors are reminded that, under an arrangement dating from 1871, the acceptance of Memoirs, and the days on which they are to be read, are now, as far as possible, determined by Organizing Committees for the several Sections before the beginning of the Meeting. It has therefore become necessary, in order to give an opportunity to the Committees of doing justice to the several Communications, that each Author should prepare an Abstract of his Memoir, of a length suitable for insertion in the published Transactions of the Association, and that he should send it, together with the original Memoir, by book-post, on or before August 1, addressed thus:—"General Secretaries, British Association, 22 Albemarle Street, London, W. For Section....." If it should be inconvenient to the Author that his Paper should be read on any particular day, he is requested to send information thereof to the Secretaries in a separate note.

G. GRIFFITH, M.A., Assistant-General-Secretary,
 Harrow, Middlesex.

LONDON HOSPITAL, Whitechapel Road, E.

This institution, which is the only large General Hospital for the Eastern half of the Metropolis, is situated in the midst of districts too poor to contribute except slightly to its support. The Committee are therefore compelled to appeal to the liberality of the general public.

Funds are now GREATLY NEEDED; between 600 and 700 patients (admitted according to the urgency of their maladies) being always in the wards; and from 4,000 to 5,000 out-patients under treatment at the same time.

The income from investments, &c., is about 14,000l.; while the expenditure is necessarily over 40,000l. yearly.

Annual subscriptions and donations towards meeting the deficiency are earnestly solicited.

Governorship, annual, 5l. 5s.; life, 31l. 10s., entitling to recommend one in-patient and four out-patients at the same time. Subscribers of less than 5l. 5s. yearly receive three out-patient letters per guinea.

WHITTE'S MOC - MAIN LEVER TRUSS

is allowed by upwards of 500 Medical gentlemen to be the most effective invention in the curative treatment of HERNIA. The use of the truss spring, so often harmful in its effects, is here avoided, a soft bandage being worn around the body, while the requisite resting power is supplied by the MOC-MAIN PAD and PATENT LEVER, fitting with so much ease and closeness that it cannot be detected, and may be worn during sleep. A descriptive circular may be had, and the Truss (which cannot fail to fit) forwarded by post, on the circumference of the body two inches below the hips being sent to the Manufacturer,

Mr. WHITE, 228 Piccadilly, London.

Single Truss, 16s.; 21s., 26s. 6d., and 31s. 6d.; postage free. Double ditto, 31s. 6d., 42s., and 52s. 6d.; postage free. Unimpaired ditto, 42s. and 52s. 6d.; postage free.

Post-office Orders to be made payable to John White, Post Office, Piccadilly.

NEW PATENT.

ELASTIC STOCKINGS, KNEE-CAPS, &c., for VARICOSE VEINS, and all cases of WEAKNESS and SWELLING of the LEGS, SPRAINS, &c. They are porous, light in texture, and inexpensive, and are drawn on like an ordinary Stocking. Price 4s. 6d., 7s. 6d., 10s., and 15s. each; postage free.

JOHN WHITE, Manufacturer, 228 Piccadilly, London.

SAMUEL TINSLEY'S NEW PUBLICATIONS.

POPULAR NEW THREE-VOLUME NOVELS.

AGAINST HER WILL. By ANNIE L. WALKER,

Author of "A Canadian Heroine." 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

TRUE WOMEN. By KATHARINE STUART. 3 vols.

31s. 6d.

[This day.]

BITTER to SWEET END. A Novel. 3 vols.

31s. 6d.

"There is a genuine tone of humour about much of the conversations, and a natural bearing about the heroine which give very pleasant reading, and a good deal of interest and amusement to the book.....On the whole we cannot but praise 'Bitter to Sweet End.'—Public Opinion.

NOTICE.—New Story by the Popular Author of "The Curate's Discipline,"
"Woman's Wrong," "Just a Woman," &c.

HIS SECOND WIFE. By Mrs. EILOART, Author of "Meg," "Just a Woman," "Woman's Wrong," &amp;c. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

NOTICE.—The Important Story of Russian Life by Prince Joseph Lubomirski.

TATIANA; or, THE CONSPIRACY. A Tale of St.

Petersburg. By Prince JOSEPH LUBOMIRSKI. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

"The story is painfully interesting."—Standard.

RIDING OUT THE GALE. By ANNETTE LYS-

TER. 3 vols. 31s. 6d.

"The tale is full of stirring incident, and one or two of the character creations—notably Singleton's sister, Haidee—are finely conceived and artistically developed."—Scotsman.

"Hardly anyone will question the spirit, liveliness, and general pleasantness of Miss Lyster's book, the interest of which, we may say with truth, never flags from beginning to end.....A sense of moderation is a quality we always recognise with satisfaction in a novelist.....Haidee is a most delightful and refreshingly natural heroine, and no less delightful and natural, though very unlike her, is Hester Hamilton."—Graphic.

"Instead of the helpless falling to pieces so unfortunately common towards the end of a novel, the various threads are kept well in hand up to the very last page, the dénouement is well brought about, and the final chapters are some of the most satisfactory in the whole story. The tendency of the book is quite unexceptionable."—John Bull.

"Both Hester and Haidee are pleasant pictures of women, whom we feel to have been worthy, and more than worthy, of the love which they won; while Singleton himself has a certain freshness about him which makes him a favourite."—Spectator.

POPULAR NEW NOVELS, &amp;c., each complete in One Volume.

ADAM and EVE'S COURTSHIP; or, How to Write a Novel. By JAY WYE. Crown 8vo, price 7s. 6d.

RENRUTH. By HENRY TURNER. Crown 8vo,

7s. 6d.

SIBYLLE'S STORY. By OCTAVE FEUILLET.

Translated by MARGARET WATSON. Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

A DISCORD: a Story. By ALETH WILLESON.

1 vol. crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

"Something more than ordinary praise is due to a story which has a leading idea of its own, and works it out steadily, yet without wearying the reader with excessive iteration or exaggeration.....'A Discord' reminds us of some of Miss Sewell's best works. We should almost be disposed to give it the preference, on the ground that the human interest is broader. Sometimes we see traces of another and well-known influence. Mr. Price is a person not unworthy of the gallery of portraits which George Eliot has given to us."—Spectator.

"The story is gracefully and thoughtfully written, and there is a distinct impress of realism about most of the personages."—Scotsman.

The BRIDE of ROERVIG. By W. BERGSOE.

Translated from the Danish by NINA FRANCIS. Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

"A charmingly fresh and simple tale, which was well worth translating, and has been translated well."—Athenæum.

TOUCH NOT the NETTLE: a Story. By ALEC

FEARON. Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

THROUGH HARDSHIPS to LORDSHIP. By

FLORA EATON. Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

DAISY and the EARL. By CONSTANCE HOWELL.

Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

"The novel is decidedly entertaining, and it has good points enough to suggest the regret that its authoress has made it too nice to be natural, and too pretty to be probable."—Athenæum.

"We can recommend 'Daisy and the Earl' to our readers."—Civil Service Gazette.

"Well written, and the interest is not allowed to flag."—Civil Service Review.

The VANDELEURS of RED TOR. By THEO-

DORE RUSSELL MONRO. Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d.

DIFFICULTIES of POLITICAL ECONOMY. By a YOUNG BEGINNER. Crown 8vo, price 7s. 6d.

LAMECH; or, the Two Wives. A

Tale. To which is added "The Deacon's Daughters; or, Hannah and Peninnah."

"And Lamech took unto him two wives; the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah."—Gen. iv., 19.
"Elkanah, an Ephrathite, had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah."
1 Sam. i., 1, 2.

NEW EDITION OF MR. MINTURN'S "TRAVELS WEST."

TRAVELS WEST. By William

MINTURN. Large post 8vo, 12s.

"A charming book, full of anecdotes of Western American travel, and in which the author, who travelled from New York across the whole American Western desert, gives his experience of a country almost unknown to European colonists. We wish we could transcribe some of the very clear descriptions of scenery, life, and manners in which this book abounds."
Public Opinion.

NEW EDITION OF "YE OUTSIDE FOOLS."

YE OUTSIDE FOOLS; or,
Glimpses Inside the Stock Exchange. By ERASMUS PINTO, Broker. Crown 8vo, 7s. 6d. [Ready.]

"Written in a clever, cynical, and incisive style, and thoroughly exposes the 'rigs' and tricks of the Stock Exchange. One advantage of a perusal will be that those who allow themselves to be plundered will do so quite consciously. The volume as a whole is extremely interesting."—Public Opinion.

LONDON: SAMUEL TINSLEY, 10 SOUTHAMPTON STREET, STRAND.

"This journey is one so interesting in many ways that Mr. Wheatham's sprightly work may fairly rank as one of those rare books of travel which tell us something that is really new, and quite worth telling. It has enabled him to present us with some charming pictures of a curious country."—Graphic.

MY LIFE, from 1815 to 1849. By Charles LOFTUS, formerly of the Royal Navy, late of the Coldstream Guards. Author of "My Youth by Sea and Land." 3 vols. 21s. "The praise which the Athenaeum gave to the first portion of Major Loftus's work may be fairly awarded to the second. These reminiscences are pleasantly told. There is a cheeriness about them which communicates itself to the reader."—Athenaeum.

"A very pretty and clever story, and deserves the success which it can hardly fail to obtain."—Morning Post.

"This is a charming love story."—Examiner.

"It is artistic in feeling, and although the disturbing element of love must needs enter into it, still neither common sense nor any other good quality needs to fly out of the window. The characters are quite real and life-like, and speak and move simply and naturally."—Times.

MADCAP VIOLET. By William Black, Author of "A Princess of Thule," &c. New and Cheaper Edition. Fifth Thousand. Crown 8vo, 6s.

"If any one is so strangely constituted as to take no pleasure in this work as a story, let him open it anywhere, and he will be sure to light on lively dialogue, droll observations, or brilliant description. . . . 'Madcap Violet' is eminently readable throughout."—Pall Mall Gazette.

ROSE TURQUAND. By Ellice Hopkins. New and Cheaper Edition. Crown 8vo, 6s.

"If 'Rose Turquand' is a maiden novel, as we may suppose, it does its author very great credit. It shows real power, and no little originality. . . . Rose is certainly brought out as a noble character, none the less so that there can be no mistaking that she is made of flesh and blood like ourselves."—Times.

FIFTY YEARS OF MY LIFE.

By the EARL of ALBEMARLE.

With Portrait of the First Earl, engraved by C. H. Jeans.

[This day.]

QUARTERLY REVIEW.—"Chance having willed that Lord Albemarle should be successively soldier, traveller, author, courtier, politician, country gentleman, man of fashion, county member, and peer. . . . that he should live familiarly with a host of brilliant contemporaries, and be able in his seventy-seventh year to talk and write about them as freshly and vividly as if he were narrating the events of yesterday in his prime."

EDINBURGH REVIEW.—"This book is one of the most amusing of its class; it is written in a cheerful, good-humoured spirit; it contains a good many capital anecdotes, and it will preserve the traditions of one of the best old Whig families in England. . . . These reminiscences have the charm and flavour of personal experience, and they bring us into direct contact with the persons they describe."

TIMES.—"Of the whole book we need only say that it retains its interest from first to last. Lord Albemarle is light and lively and pleasant throughout these most interesting recollections. Few men have seen so much of men and manners in so many parts of the world, and to none has it been given to relate the impressions of a busy life in so gentle and cheery a spirit. There is not a single root of bitterness in these volumes from beginning to end, and when we lay down the retrospect of fifty years we are sorry to part with so genial and generous a companion."

DAILY NEWS.—"Lord Albemarle has been soldier, traveller, and politician; he saw his first field at Waterloo, he remembers Fox, he was when a boy a playmate of the Princess Charlotte. . . . These recollections are interesting from first to last. They have a pleasant charm in their complete freedom from pretentiousness and affectation."

The MEDA MAIDEN, and other Poems.

ROMAN POETS of the AUGUSTAN AGE.

—VIRGIL. By W. Y. SKELLAR, M.A., Professor of Humanity, Edinburgh. 8vo, 14s.

"The most important effort that has as yet been made to interpret Virgil for modern readers. . . . The most comprehensive book on Virgil that exists in English." Saturday Review.

A COMMENTARY on CATULLUS. By

ROBINSON ELLIS, M.A. 8vo, 16s.

"One of the fullest and most careful commentaries, probably, that have ever been published in illustration of any classical author. . . . We have rarely seen so genuine a labour of love and conscientious care as the book before us. Its great merit lies in the fullness of knowledge and width of reading brought to bear on the interpretation of Catullus, and in the thoroughness and minuteness with which every point of importance is sifted and discussed."—Academy.

HOMER'S ODYSSEY. Edited, with English Notes, Appendices, &c., by W. W. MERRY, M.A., and the late J. RIDDELL, M.A. I. to XII. 8vo, 16s.

"A useful book the volume undoubtedly is, for it contains, within a manageable compass, a great amount of learning. . . . But it may also claim to be something more than useful; it contains many sound judgments, it often exhibits an uncommon insight into the true nature of grammatical construction, and a delicate sense of the exact meaning of words. In all that appertains to the elucidation of the text, it is the best of English editions."—Academy.

A HISTORY of FRANCE down to 1793.

By G. W. KITCHIN, M.A. With numerous Maps, Plans, and Tables. 3 vols. crown 8vo, each, 10s. 6d.

The Times says: "Mr. Kitchin has struck out a new line for himself, and set himself to the task of making the history of France readable. We may say at once that he has succeeded; his story is not too long, and he tells it in a lively, agreeable manner. . . . The work derives additional value from some excellent tables and maps which accompany it."

Oxford: Printed at the Clarendon Press;
And Published by MACMILLAN & Co., London,
Publishers to the University.

RICHARD BENTLEY & SON'S LIST.

MOMMSEN'S HISTORY of ROME, from the EARLIEST TIME to the PERIOD of its DECLINE. By Dr. THEODOR MOMMSEN. Translated with the Author's sanction, and Additions, by Rev. W. P. DICKSON. With an Introduction by Dr. SCHMITZ. 4 vols. crown 8vo, 2l. 6s. 6d.; or sold separately—Vols. I. and II., 2l.; Vol. III., 10s. 6d.; Vol. IV., with Index, 15s. The Index separately, 3s. 6d.

Also a LIBRARY EDITION, in 4 vols. demy 8vo, 75s. With Index. These volumes not sold separately. The Index separately, 3s. 6d.

"A work of the very highest merit; its learning is exact and profound; its narrative full of genius and skill; its descriptions of men are admirably vivid. We wish to place on record our opinion that Dr. MommSEN's is by far the best history of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Commonwealth."—Times.

"Taking the author's complete mastery of his subject, the variety of his gifts and acquirements, his graphic power in the delineation of natural and individual character, and the vivid interest which he inspires in every portion of his book, he is without an equal in his own sphere."—Edinburgh Review.

CURTIVS' HISTORY of GREECE. From the EARLIEST TIMES down to 337 B.C. From the German of Professor ERNST CURTIUS, by A. W. WAID, M.A. 5 vols. demy 8vo, 4l. 4s.; or separately, Vols. I. and II., each 15s.; Vols. III. and IV., each 18s.; Vol. V., with Index, 18s.

"A history known to scholars as one of the profoundest, most original, and most instructive of modern times."—Globe.
"We cannot express our opinion of Dr. Curtius' book better than by saying that it may be rightly ranked with Theodor Mommsen's great work."—Spectator.

The LIVES of the ARCHBISHOPS of CANTERBURY, from ST. AUGUSTINE to JUXON. By the late Very Rev. WALTER FARQUHAR HOOK, D.D., Dean of Chichester. In 12 vols. demy 8vo, 9l. 5s.; or sold separately as follows:—Vol. I., 15s.; Vol. II., 15s.; Vols. III. and IV., 30s.; Vol. V., 15s.; Vols. VI. and VII., 30s.; Vol. VIII., 15s.; Vol. IX., 15s.; Vol. X., 15s.; Vol. XI., 15s. Vol. XII., being the Index to the previous 11 vols., price 21s., is now ready.

"Written with remarkable knowledge and power. The Author has done his work diligently and conscientiously. Throughout, we see a man who has known much of men and of life—the pure Anglican divine who at every step has been accustomed to make good his cause against Romanism on the one hand, and against Puritanism on the other. We express our sense of the value of this work. We heartily like the general spirit, and are sure that the author has bestowed upon his work a loving labour, with an earnest desire to find out the truth. To the general reader it will convey much information in a very pleasant form; to the student it will give the means of filling up the outlines of Church history with life and colour."—Quarterly Review.

TRAVELS IN THE SCLAVONIC PROVINCES OF TURKEY-IN-EUROPE.

By G. MUIR MACKENZIE and A. P. IRBY.

With an INTRODUCTION by the Right Hon. W. E. GLADSTONE, M.P.

From Mr. Gladstone's Preface.

"I do not mean to disparage the labours and services of others when I say that in my opinion no diplomatist, no consul, no traveller, among our countrymen, has made such a valuable contribution to our means of knowledge in this important matter. Here, much more than in any other work I have been able to discover, is exhibited to view, without passion or prejudice, as well as without reserve, the normal state of life among the subject races, the standing relation both between them and their Government, and likewise between them and those Mahometans who are at once their fellow-subjects and their masters."

Captain Burton in the "Athenaeum."

"A vivid and circumstantial picture of the three races now interesting all Europe, and, being written before 1867, it is equally free from the exaggerated Slavophilism and Turcophilism of England in 1877."

Saturday Review.

"It is most useful that the history of Bosnia should be known in England, and that Englishmen should really understand what it was that made the Bosnians revolt, and impelled 200,000 persons to cross the Save and live on a daily penny a head in the territory of Austria. Miss Irby writes very soberly, and with an anxious desire not to exaggerate or make up a sensational picture. She only relates what she has seen, or what has been stated to her by persons whom she has known personally, and on whose good faith she can rely."

Daily Express.

"This work appears at an opportune moment. When the authoresses first undertook their philanthropic mission in the provinces of Turkey, they could not possibly have dreamt of the after-benefits that were to flow from their work."

Echo.

"The tone of the book is throughout healthy and elevated."

Scotsman.

"It will have great interest and value at the present juncture."

Edinburgh Daily Review.

"We gladly welcome a second edition of this highly interesting work."

Birmingham Daily Post.

"Only to ladies of a brave and resolute spirit could such an undertaking have been possible. There is, however, no parade of this; nothing can be more modest, self-restrained, and unassuming than the tone of the whole narrative, and yet there is not a chapter which does not give the English reader cause to be proud of the fearless and really heroic spirit with which the beneficent and self-sacrificing undertaking was carried through."

John Bull.

"Few books on the Eastern question are so full of information; and these volumes are the more valuable because, though in them the writers give the most precise details of Turkish life and Turkish rule, of Serbian wrongs and Bulgarian submission, the whole narrative was written and published before the indignation of Europe was aroused, and whilst it was possible to write with calmness. Many reasons concur to make us regard it as possessing a permanent value."

Nonconformist.

"The three first chapters will be read with an interest, we hope, commensurate to their importance. For a true picture of the recent and present position of unfortunate Bosnia, no better informed or more trustworthy authority could be found."

DALDY, ISBISTER, & Co., 56 Ludgate Hill, E.C.

THE LIBRARY OF CONTEMPORARY SCIENCE.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Some degree of truth has been admitted in the charge not unfrequently brought against the English, that they are assiduous rather than solid readers. They give themselves too much to the lighter forms of literature. Technical Science is almost exclusively restricted to its professed votaries, and but for some of the Quarterlies and Monthlies, very little solid matter would come within the reach of the general public.

But the circulation enjoyed by many of these very periodicals, and the increase of the scientific journals, may be taken for sufficient proof that a taste for more serious subjects of study is now growing. Indeed, there is good reason to believe that if strictly scientific subjects are not more universally cultivated, it is mainly because they are not rendered more accessible to the people. Such themes are treated either too elaborately, or in too forbidding a style, or else brought out in too costly a form to be easily available to all classes.

The splendid conquests of Modern Science in every branch of human knowledge are, moreover, as a rule, scattered over a multiplicity of monographs, essays, memoirs, and special works of all sorts. Except in the Encyclopædias, their varied results are nowhere to be found, so to say, under one cover, and even in these unwieldy compilations they are necessarily handled more summarily than is always desirable.

With the view of remedying this manifold and increasing inconvenience, we are glad to be able to take advantage of a comprehensive project recently set on foot in France, emphatically the land of Popular Science. The well-known publishers, MM. REINWALD & Co., have made satisfactory arrangements with some of the leading savants of that country to supply an exhaustive Series of Works on each and all of the sciences of the day, treated in a style at once lucid, popular, and strictly methodic.

The names of MM. P. BROCA, Secretary of the Société d'Anthropologie; CH. MARTINS, Montpellier University; C. VOGT, University of Geneva; G. DE MORTILLET, Museum of Saint Germain; A. GUILLEMIN, Author of "Ciel" and "Phénomènes de la Physique;" A. HOVELACQUE, Editor of the "Revue de Linguistique;" Dr. DALLY, Dr. LETOURNEAU, and many others, whose co-operation has already been secured, are a guarantee that their respective subjects will receive thorough treatment, and will in all cases be written up to the very latest discoveries, and kept in every respect fully abreast of the times.

We have, on our part, been fortunate in making such further arrangements with some of the best writers and recognised authorities here, as will enable us to present the series in a thoroughly English dress to the reading public of this country. In so doing we feel convinced that we are taking the best means of supplying a want that has long been deeply felt.

The Volumes in actual course of execution, or contemplated, will embrace such subjects as: Anthropology, Biology, Science of Language, Comparative Mythology, Astronomy, Prehistoric Archaeology, Ethnography, Geology, Hygiene, Political Economy, Physical and Commercial Geography, Philosophy, Architecture, Chemistry, Education, General Anatomy, Zoology, Botany, Meteorology, History, Finance, Mechanics, Statistics, &c.

All the Volumes, while complete and so far independent in themselves, will be of uniform appearance, slightly varying, according to the nature of the subject, in bulk and price.

The First Volume, on the SCIENCE OF LANGUAGE, will be published in June, large crown 8vo, price 5s.

When finished they will form a COMPLETE COLLECTION OF STANDARD WORKS OF REFERENCE on all the PHYSICAL and MENTAL SCIENCES, thus fully justifying the general title chosen for the series—"LIBRARY OF CONTEMPORARY SCIENCE."
